Trijų amžiaus grupių „Ateitis CUP 2017. Spring“ turnyras prasidėjo netikėtu „Liverpool“ pralaimėjimu Baltarusijos Minsko „Smena“ ekipai. Šis pralaimėjimas legendinio Anglijos klubo akademijai atėmė visas galimybes pakovoti dėl vietos pirmajame ketvertė. U-12 amžiaus grupėje į ketvertuką užtikrintai žengė ir Vilniaus FM auklėtiniai, įdomią komandą į Lietuvą atvežęs „Buiucani“ klubas iš Moldovos bei FC „Torino“ ekipa, kuri per pirmąją rungtynių dieną nepraleido nei vieno įvarčio.

Vienuolikmečių grupėje taip pat ryškiausiai žiba jaunieji italai iš Veronos „Hellas“ akademijos. Iš Lietuvos komandų geriausiai pasirodė BFA futbolininkai, kurie varžysis dėl patekimo į didįjį finalą.

2000/01 metų gimimo turnyras pasižymi lygybe – čia beveik visų komandų pajėgumas yra panašus, o tarkime „Krumkachy“ komanda iš Baltarusijos grupės turnyre visas ketverias rungtynes sužaidė lygiosiomis.

Finalinė diena – sekmadienį.

Šį ketvirtadienį į Vilnių tiesioginiais reisais iš Liverpulio ir Milano atskrenda Anglijos "Premier" lygos bei Italijos "Seria A" klubų akademijų komandos, kurios dalyvaus šį savaitgalį rengiamame didžiausiame Baltijos šalyse vaikų futbolo turnyre "Ateitis CUP".

"Liverpool" akademijos vadovai labai prisibijojo atvykti į mūsų turnyrą pirmą kartą. Tačiau trečiąją turnyro dieną jie neslėpė, kad tai ne paskutinis kartas, kai atvyksta į Lietuvą. Dar po kelių savaitžių jie užsiregistravo pavasariniam turnyrui ir šį savaitgalį bus su mumis. Mano nuomone, tokio klubo įvertinimas yra pats geriausias indikatorius, koks tik gali būti", – raudonųjų atvykimu džiaugėsi pagrindinis turnyro organizatorius Dainius Gudaitis, priminęs, jog nugalėtojams skirta "Ateitis CUP" taurė buvo įteikta "Anfield" stadione, stebint 40 tūkstančių sirgalių.

Pentadienį startuosiančiame turnyre varžysis 2000/01, 2005 ir 2006 metų gimimo futbolininkai. Vyresniųjų grupė žais LFF ir "Fanu" stadionuose, mažesniųjų – "Sportimos" manieže.

"Torino" ir "Hellas" akademijų komandos į "Ateitis CUP" turnyrą atvyksta ne pirmą kartą. Šalia jų, varžysis komandos iš Danijos, Estijos, Latvijos, Rusijos, Baltarusijos ir Lietuvos.

This Thursday to Vilnius from Liverpool and Milan, will arrive the English Premier League's and Italian "Series A" club's academies teams. They, in upcoming weekend will compete in the largest of the Baltic countries children's football tournament "Ateitis CUP"

"Liverpool's Academy's students are visiting us for the second time. In my opinion, the participation of such a club says a lot of good things about this tournament", – said the main tournament organizer Dainius Gudaitis. "The great honor was shown too when the winners of the U13 tournament were rewarded in "Anfield" stadium, when being watched by 40 thousand fans", - he recalled.

The tournament of 2000/01, 2005 and 2006 will start this Friday. The older groups will play in the LFF and "Fanu" stadiums, younger ones – in Sportima's arena.

"Torino" and "Hellas" academy's teams are going to participate in this tournament not for the first time. Also the teams of Denmark, Estonia, Latvia, Russia, Belarus and Lithuania will compete in Ateitis CUP.
